1. MOON JUMPER (N. Batchameah) raced wide in the early stages. Thereafter, this gelding raced wide around the turn and into the straight.
2. The saddle of DAYLA VISTA (T. Ladouceur) slipped forward in the running. This was confirmed by the Veterinary Surgeon. As a consequence of this incident, Apprentice T. Ladouceur was unable to fully assist this gelding in the running, and this performance could not be considered a satisfactory qualifying ride.
3. DUKE OF ABERCORN (K. Ramsamy) hung out in the straight and carried out ROMANUS (A. Paya).
4. Apprentice N. Batchameah, reported that MOON JUMPER did not stride out freely in the running. In view of this report, the Veterinary Surgeon was requested to examine.
5. Assistant Trainer J. Awotar and Apprentice T. Ladouceur appeared before the Board and were questioned regarding the instructions on DAYLA VISTA (T. Ladouceur). In this regard, Assistant Trainer J. Awotar explained that when assessing the race, he was of the view that DAYLA VISTA could lead easily, particularly with the addition of the blinkers for the first time. Accordingly, he instructed Apprentice T. Ladouceur to jump, not push this horse and allow it to use his natural early speed. He further explained that he instructed Apprentice T. Ladouceur that if another horse committed for the lead aggressively, he was to take cover and attempt to settle this gelding.

Apprentice T. Ladouceur explained that after seeing Jockey K. Ramsamy (DUKE OF ABERCORN) ride as aggressively for the lead as he did, he elected to not take him on and risk DAYLA VISTA becoming fierce throughout. The Board noted the explanations of both Assistant Trainer J. Awotar and Apprentice T. Ladouceur.

5. Trainer P. Nagadoo and Apprentice N. Batchameah (EAGLES VISION) appeared before the Board and were questioned regarding the lack of intent shown on EAGLES VISION at the start of the race. In this regard, Apprentice N. Batchameah explained that he was instructed to ride EAGLES VISION where it was comfortable in the race. He further explained that ideally, he would have liked him to be placed in a more forward position than where he found himself. However, after jumping on only even terms, he did not want to commit his horse too early and instead elected to take cover at the rear of the field, which was aligned with the pattern of racing in EAGLES VISION's best run of the season (13 May 2023). He further explained that he had intended to make a move from the 700m, but he did not have sufficient room to do so. Trainer P. Nagadoo explained that he expected ITDAWNEDONME (J. Allyhosain) to press the pace with GIGGIN (B. Bhaugerothee) and therefore wanted EAGLES VISION to run behind this speed. However, after the jump, he accepted that it was not possible for EAGLES VISION to move forward without risking being trapped wide. Consequently, he was happy that Apprentice N. Batchameah restrained and took cover. The Board noted the explanations of both Trainer P. Nagadoo and Apprentice N. Batchameah.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Race 1 - THE WE LOVE MAHEBOURG VOLUNTEER CUP - [0 - 20] - 1365m

Trainer K. Ramanah signed an admission of guilt in respect of a contravention of Rule 81.1.36, in that he communicated with two Jockeys outside the Jockeys' Room after being instructed not to do so. Accordingly, a penalty of a fine of Rs 10,000 was imposed.

2. The shoes of the handler were inspected by the Stipes today. In this regard, despite numerous warnings to PTP, there were many handlers who were still non-compliant with the basic requirements of having proper safety shoes. This matter will be addressed in a report to the PTP.

3. RACE MEETING 17: Race 2 - BOOK A TABLE AT PTP CUP - [0 - 15] - 990m

“At the 900m, SUPREME ELEVATION (R. Kulloo) shifted out when awkwardly placed in respect of the running rail. In reaction to this movement, LE QUARTIER (I. Taka) was momentarily inconvenienced, took a hold, shifted out and carried out CHESTNUT COVE (J. Allyhosain). Additionally, the saddle of SUPREME ELEVATION slipped forward in the running. This was confirmed by the Stipendiary Stewards during the viewing of the footage.

In light of this being another ride with a delayed correction from Apprentice R. Kulloo, the Stipendiary Stewards are in the opinion that his performance cannot be considered as a qualified ride. Therefore, Apprentice R. Kulloo has been suspended by the Stipendiary Stewards, until satisfactorily completing an approved apprentice program.”

In light of the above report, on 25 July 2023, the Stipendiary Stewards observed the activities of Apprentice Kulloo whilst riding work at the Petit Gamin Trainer Centre. After such observation and discussion with his Trainer, Mr. D. Zaki, the Stipendiary Stewards were satisfied that Apprentice Kulloo was able to feed, maintain and saddle a horse. Additionally, Apprentice Kulloo completed two gallops to the satisfaction of the Stipendiary Stewards. Consequently, the Stipendiary Stewards were satisfied that Apprentice Kulloo was able to demonstrate the necessary ‘broader based’ understanding of the racehorse which Apprentices are required by the HRD to have. Accordingly, the suspension on Apprentice Kulloo was lifted with immediate effect.
