Stewards Reports

1. SAND PATH (I. Taka) was hanging out in the straight.
2. Jockey K. Ramsamy appeared before the Board and was questioned regarding his riding tactics on STAGWORLD in this race. He confirmed his instructions were to be in a handy position with cover and only if jumping exceptionally, to challenge for the lead. He further explained that prior to the race he had anticipated that there would be more significant speed on his inside, therefore he had not planned to lead in this race as when this gelding led previously, he did not finish his race off as strongly as he could have. However, considering the natural early speed shown by STAGEWORLD today, which enabled him to get across the field as easily as it did, he was of the view that it would have been counterproductive to break this gelding's stride and look for cover under the circumstances, particularly as he had seen that SPIRITUAL WIND (M. De Oliveira) had not jumped on even terms. The Board noted the explanations of Jockey K. Ramsamy.
